Our visit program will begin with Assisi: City of art and history but above all a destination for religious pilgrimage, one of the most visited sanctuaries in Christianity.

It's Birthplace of San Francesco and Santa Chiara. We will visit the Basilica of San Francesco and Santa Chiara. Have some free time for a lunch break around the Santa Maria Degli Angeli Basilica with the Porziuncola.

We will proceed with the visit of Bevagna: Important city in the Umbrian and Roman times, offers the visitor an intact medieval environment, alleys, landscape views and the main square, beautiful with two jewels of Romanesque architecture: the 12th century churches of San Silvestro and San Michele.

Transfer to Montefalco, with an exceptional panoramic position, from which you can admire the entire Umbrian Valley, is perched and defended by its walls, along which five doors

Montefalco is the home of Sagrantino wine, one of the best reds in Italy, a strong attraction for wine tourism that delights in the many cellars of the city.

We will visit the cellar of Arnaldo Caprai: a guided tour of the cellar, tasting of the current vintages of our most representative labels and of our EVO oil.

The tasting will include the wines of Greccate Colli Martani Grechetto DOC, Montefalco red DOC, Montefalco Sagrantino Collepiano DOCG.

Return to hotel, dinner and overnight in Scheggino

3°day - Todi and Spoleto

Breakfast in hotel

Transfer to Todi, that was a border town between Umbrians and Etruscans. Subsequently Roman, and finally a medieval municipality.

Famous for its splendid panoramic views and for its austere, noble and elegant appearance.

Visit of the Temple of Consolation, a Renaissance masterpiece built at the foot of the hill, the Church of San Fortunato, a magnificent example of Gothic architecture and the bright square built in the space that occupied the Roman forum, with the beautiful municipal public buildings and the splendid Romanesque cathedral.

Afternoon dedicated to the visit of Spoleto: ancient Umbrian city, later Roman, later seat of the Lombard duchy and finally a magnificent medieval town and Renaissance city.

We will see: Rocca dell' Alborno, Bridge of the Towers, Cathedral, Market square – Fountain of Mascherone, Arch of Drusus and Germanicus, Town Hall and Roman theatre
